COACHING/SUPPORT STAFF

Tom Ryan
Head Coach
Seventh Season
Alma Mater
 Iowa (1993)
Ohio State Record
 76-30-0 (.717)
Career Record
 185-113-1 (.620)
Big Ten Record
 30-18 (.625)

Tom Ryan concluded his sixth season as head coach of the Buckeyes in 2011-12 and the campaign proved to be a historical one. Coaching seven freshmen in the starting lineup, Ryan guided three of them to All-America status, a feat never before accomplished in program history. At the culmination of the season, Ryan witnessed redshirt freshman Logan Stieber capture the 133-pound title at the NCAA championships, marking the third Buckeye under Ryan's tutelage to win an individual national championship. In all, three student-athletes have won four individual NCAA titles as J Jagers (141 pounds), the 2009 Ohio State Male Athlete of the Year, was a two-time champion in 2008 and 2009.

In 2011-12, Ryan, who won his 180th-career match vs. Purdue Jan. 12, and the Scarlet and Gray capped the season with a 5th-place finish at the NCAA Division I Wrestling championships without a single upperclassman in the lineup. Recording a 13-4 overall record and 5-3 ledger in the Big Ten Conference, the Buckeyes beat six ranked teams during the season – No. 15 Virginia Tech, 21-12; No. 9 Pittsburgh, 22-9; No. 20 Kent State, 22-15; No. 2 Iowa, 21-9; No. 12 Michigan, 24-13; No. 8 Nebraska, 21-18 (National Duals). Ohio State also won the annual Cliff Keen Las Vegas Wrestling Invitational where true freshman Hunter Stieber, the younger brother of Logan, recorded a stunning victory over No. 1 and defending national champion Kellen Russell of Michigan, 6-5. Later in the season, the Scarlet and Gray advanced to the regional final of the NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals Mat Mayhem in Stillwater, Okla. Ohio State faced No. 1 Oklahoma State in the final and dropped a 25-6 decision. Finally, one of the most exciting moments of the season occurred Jan. 20 when the Buckeyes downed Iowa (21-9) for the first time in 46 years (Feb. 12, 1966) before 5,684 fans in St. John Arena.

Throughout his tenure as the head coach of Ohio State, Ryan, the 2009 national coach of the year, has maintained a high standard of excellence for his student-athletes. In addition to Stieber and Jagers' national titles, Mike Pucillo was a 2008 NCAA Champion and while under the guidance of the Wantagh, N.Y., native Lance Palmer (2007-10) became just the second four-time All-American at Ohio State. (Tommy Rowlands was the first). Ryan is averaging about three All-Americans a season having coached 20 selections during his six-year term. Within the Big Ten Conference, Ryan has coached a trio of Buckeyes to league titles in Pucillo (184 pounds in 2008), Palmer (149 pounds 2010) and Stieber (133 pounds in 2012).

Academically, Ryan's student-athletes have impressed with six Buckeyes recognized by the National Wrestling Coaches Association with NWCA All-Academic Team accolades – J.D. Bergman, J Jagers, C.J. Magrum (two-time), Corey Morrison (two-time), Mike Pucillo and Colt Sponseller. Additionally, Sponseller and Ian Paddock were lauded with NWCA Division I True-Freshman All-Academic Team honors. Since Ryan's arrival there have been 26 and 64 Academic All-Big Ten and Ohio State Scholar-Athlete selections, respectively.

Ryan's student-athletes also are involved in various community service initiatives. Some of the programs Ohio State is actively involved in include the Second & Seven Foundation, which strives to "Tackle Illiteracy" in Central Ohio and the annual Wrestle against Autism Tournament. In 2009, the Buckeyes were presented with a Resolution of Expression in council chambers from Columbus City Council member A. Troy Miller for their commitment to community service, academics and athletics.

After arriving to The Ohio State University campus in the spring of 2006, Ryan immediately began the task of completing his coaching staff. Ryan brought on board some of the best coaching talent in the nation in Joe Heskett, Lou Rosselli and Tommy Rowlands. Two years later, this staff would propel the Scarlet and Gray to the program's best finish in the NCAA championships. Backed by a pair of national champions – Jagers and Pucillo – for a total of three finalists, Ohio State earned 79 points for the first of consecutive runner-up finishes.

The following season, Ryan and Ohio State nearly pulled off one of the biggest upsets in NCAA championship history when three Buckeyes (Reece Humphrey at 133 pounds; Jagers and Pucillo) advanced to the finals with the team lead. In one of the tightest team races in recent championship history, the Buckeyes were clipped by Iowa by 4.5 points as Ohio State finished with 92 points compared to the Hawkeyes' 96.5.

Prior to coaching at Ohio State, Ryan was the head coach at Hofstra from 1995-2006. While with the Pride, Ryan earned Eastern Collegiate Wrestling Association and Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year seven times. He also was named New York State Coach of the Year twice. Leading Hofstra to six consecutive conference titles, Ryan and the Pride recorded a 47-match (46-0-1) conference unbeaten streak in dual action which served as the nation's longest conference unbeaten streak. Ryan also was an assistant coach at Indiana from 1992-94.

Ryan earned his bachelor's degree in education from Iowa in 1993. He and his wife, Lynette, have four children, Jordan, Jake, Teague and Mackenzie.

COACHING/SUPPORT STAFF

Lou Rosselli
Associate Head Coach
Seventh Season
Alma Mater
Edinboro (1993)

Lou Rosselli concluded his sixth season on the Buckeye coaching staff in March. Hired by Ohio State head coach Tom Ryan in the spring of 2006, Rosselli was promoted to associate head coach following the 2008-09 season. The 2009 National Wrestling Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year, Rosselli helped guide Ohio State to its second-consecutive runner-up finish at the NCAA championships that same year. As well, Rosselli was instrumental in mentoring two-time NCAA champion J Jagers in 2008 and 2009.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Buckeye program, Rosselli has worked extensively with USA wrestling. Most recently, Rosselli served as a volunteer coach of the U.S. Olympic Freestyle Team for the London Games in July. Rosselli was one of five finalists for a 2008 U.S. Olympic freestyle volunteer coaching position. Additionally, Rosselli is a three-time U.S. Freestyle World Team Coach. In September of 2011, Rosselli assisted the U.S. freestyle team to a third-place finish at the FILA Wrestling World Championships in Istanbul, Turkey. He worked in the same capacity at the 2007 and 2006 world championships. In 2007, the U.S. finished fourth in Baku, Azerbaijan, while the year before, the squad posted a third-place finish in Guangzhou, China. USA Wrestling awarded Rosselli with the Terry McCann Freestyle Coach of the Year honor in 2007 following the team's impressive performance in China.

Additionally, Rosselli led the 2009 Pan American Championships squad to a gold medal in Maracaibo, Venezuela. A year later, he coached the 2010 U.S. World University Games team in Torino, Italy. In 2005, Rosselli was an assistant coach at the 2005 World University Games in Izmir, Turkey, and the U.S. team recorded a third-place finish.

A member of the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team (114.5 pounds), Rosselli was a 1997 World Cup Champion and won the silver medal at the 1998 Pan American Championships. Rosselli was a three-time U.S. National Freestyle champion, capturing the title in 1995, 1996 and 1999. He also was a University National Freestyle champion in 1994.

A letterwinner at Edinboro from 1989-1993, Rosselli was a two-time All-American as he finished third and fourth at the 1993 and 1991 NCAA Championships, respectively. In 1993, Rosselli earned Outstanding Wrestler accolades at both the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference and Eastern Wrestling League championships. He was a three-time PSAC champion (118 pounds) and in 1989 was named EWL Freshman of the Year en route to becoming the first freshman Fighting Scot to earn a trip to the NCAA championships.

In addition to receiving the Terry McCann Award, Rosselli has been lauded with several other honors throughout his career. Rosselli was honored by the Edinboro University of Pennsylvania Alumni Association at the Distinguished Alumni Awards ceremony with the Young Alumni Award. That honor complements his memberships in the Edinboro and Eastern Wrestling League halls of fame. Rosselli was added to a third hall of fame in October of 2009 when he was officially enshrined into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame.

Prior to moving to Columbus, Rosselli was part of the Edinboro coaching staff for 11 seasons. He began his stint with the Fighting Scots as a three-year volunteer assistant coach before being promoted to assistant coach.

Rosselli earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1993. A native of Middleport, N.Y., Rosselli was a two-time New York state champion at Royalton-Hartland High School.

Rosselli and his wife, Amy, have three children, Jordan, Ty and Jaxson.

J Jagers
Assistant Coach
Fourth Season
Alma Mater
Ohio State (2009)

Two-time NCAA champion J Jagers made a seamless transition from student-athlete to coach in 2009-10 as the volunteer assistant coach and now is in his third year as a full-time assistant and fourth overall. In addition to his integral role in the gym and his coaching duties during matches, Jagers has recruiting responsibilities as well.

"Jagers brings a successful resume to the Buckeye program," Tom Ryan, head coach, said. "He has accomplished many great things as a competitor and student. His deep-rooted passion for the Buckeyes makes him a great addition to the staff."

Jagers concluded his Buckeye career in impressive fashion, becoming just the third wrestler in program history to win two national titles. A three-time All-American and four-time NCAA qualifier, Jagers collected 107 wins during his career. After winning his first national title in 2008, he was honored by the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission with Collegiate Athlete of the Year.

Excelling in the classroom, Jagers was a three-time NWCA All-Academic Team member, two-time Academic All-Big Ten and Ohio State Scholar-Athlete recipient. Jagers earned his bachelor's degree in communication in March 2009.

Jagers and his wife Kara are expecting their first child, a boy, this November. The couple resides in Delaware, Ohio.

Ross Thatcher
Volunteer Assistant Coach
Second Season
Alma Mater
Penn State (2000)

Ross Thatcher returned to the Ohio State wrestling program for the 2011-12 season after previously working with the team from 2005-08 as the volunteer strength and conditioning coach. Prior to his return to Columbus, Thatcher served as the volunteer assistant coach at Oklahoma, a position he began in 2009. Thatcher was part of the coaching staff that helped the Sooners finish fifth at the 2010 NCAA Championships.

A graduate of Bishop Ready High School, Thatcher began his coaching career at his alma mater, Penn State in 2000. An assistant coach for the Nittany Lions until 2003, Thatcher continued his coaching career at Ohio State. He was part of the Buckeye coaching staff that guided the Scarlet and Gray to its first of two runner-up finishes at the NCAA championships in 2008. During that season, the Buckeyes boasted three NCAA finalists - J Jagers, Mike Pucillo, and J.D. Bergman - with Jagers and Pucillo winning NCAA titles.

A three-time finalist and two-time Ohio state champion for Bishop Ready, Thatcher was a four-time letterwinner at Penn State. In 2000, he was named team captain and capped his career by garnering All-America honors. Following his career at PSU, Thatcher wrestled for the New York Athletic Club, where he was a two-time Sunkist International Open champion, champion at the New York Athletic Club International Open, Dave Schultz International Open champion and was named Northeast Regional Outstanding Wrestler and champion. Additionally, he was a Bronze medalist for the 2001 U.S. Pan-American team and was a member of the U.S. World University Games Freestyle and Greco Roman squads.

Thatcher graduated from Penn State in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in health and human development. Thatcher resides in Columbus with his wife, Jen and daughter Emma.

2011-12 SEASON IN REVIEW

Notes

- Ohio State finished the regular season 13-4 overall and the Big Ten regular season with a 5-3 record; compiled 91 points for a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten championships; 68.5 points for a fifth-place finish in the NCAA championships.
- Redshirt freshman Logan Stieber was crowned the 2012 Big Ten and NCAA Champion at 133 pounds.
- The Buckeyes beat six ranked teams during the season – No. 15 Virginia Tech, 21-12; No. 9 Pittsburgh, 22-9; No. 20 Kent State, 22-15; No. 2 Iowa, 21-9; No. 12 Michigan, 24-13; No. 8 Nebraska, 21-18 (National Duals).
- Amassing 129 points, Ohio State won the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Wrestling Invitational Dec. 2.
- The Scarlet and Gray advanced to the regional final of the NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals Mat Mayhem Feb. 12 in Stillwater, Okla. Ohio State faced No. 1 Oklahoma State in the final and dropped a 25-6 decision.
- On average, the Buckeyes started seven freshmen during the 2011-12 season, including a pair of redshirt freshmen and five true freshmen.
- Ohio State captured its 700th dual victory Dec. 9 at Pittsburgh.
- For the first time in 46 years (Feb. 12, 1966), Ohio State beat conference opponent Iowa, 21-9, in front of 5,684 fans in St. John Arena.
- Head coach Tom Ryan, who was coaching his sixth season as the Buckeye mentor, won his 180th career match Jan. 12 vs. Purdue.
- Freshman Andrew Campolattano's 18-second pin over Michigan's Chris Heald Feb. 3 is the fourth-fastest time in Ohio State wrestling history. Kevin Randleman holds the record with an eight-second pin in 1992.
- Cam Tessari's match vs. No. 2-seed Eric Grajales of Michigan in the 149-pound consolation semifinals of the Big Ten Championships was the event's longest bout. Tessari, the No. 5 seed, dropped a 3-2 decision in four tiebreakers.

HONORS AND AWARDS

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

In 1914, the Big Ten Conference endowed a Medal of Honor, awarded annually at each institution to the senior student demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and athletics. Two Buckeye wrestlers have shown the drive and dedication needed to earn this award, Ron Gharbo (1988) and Mike DiSabato (1991).
